8.	Banquet Update Last years banquet cost roughly $1100. Expenditures included pizza, soda,	Kathy Megahan

Neshaminy Youth Wrestling Club
Meeting Minutes - Friday December 12, 2008

	cake, balloons, etc... as well as $100 donation for use of Fire Hall. Kathy did research about holding this year's banquet at someplace like Brunswick Zone or Pennel Lanes instead of a Fire Hall setting It was noted that the value for money spent did not make these other venues financially attractive, so everyone agreed that we should pursue the Fire Hall approach again this year.
9.	Wrestling Practice Discussion / Feedback Members discussed opinions on this topic. Some points mentioned included the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Percentage of instruction to drilling is too high. "Room" (activity) depends on the time of season (Joe Cianfarra) - Need to switch partners more whenever possible (Kathy Megahan) - 4 "bread & butter" ; 1 not so common, looks cool, is fun (Ed Kisselback) Bob Lawlor discussed recent experience at "Wrecking Crew" club in MT Holly, NJ <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - 9 coaches - Teach, then 4 man drills (wrestlers within 6-9 lbs of each other) - 60 to 70 kids total - Intense workout, - Son came home exhausted, but loved it! 	All
